STEAMER
U. S. GRANT,
Will make Two Trips per Week to the CITY OF ASTORIA!
Carrying Passengers at $10, the Round Trip, (Meals Included.)

The Boat leaves Portland Wednesdays and Saturdays at 7½ A. M. Returning leaves Astoria Thursdays and Mondays at 6 o'clock A. M.
Every person purchasing a Passenger Ticket will be presented with one of 900 Prize Tickets, to be drawn on the 1ST DAY OF AUGUST, 1867, for the following Prizes:
Steamer U. S. GRANT, to be divided into 4 shares;
ONE BLOCK OF LOTS IN EAST PORTLAND, divided into 8 shares, or one lot to the share, viz: Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, Block 17, opposite the "New Columbian" Hotel, and at the terminus of the proposed Suspension Bridge;
ONE GOLD WATCH, worth $100;
150 CORDS DRY FIR WOOD, in 3 shares, to be placed on the Brooklyn Wharf.
The Steamer is 64 tons burthen, 52 horse-power engine, propeller wheel, draft of water 5 feet. She is being thoroughly refitted and refurnished as a Passenger Boat. The Boat will be delivered in perfect order, free from all incumbrance, and Warranty Deeds made for the real estate, to the persons drawing the same. Tickets can be had of C. P. FERRY, in Portland, where the money will be left on deposit till the prizes are drawn and delivered.
Any person having a claim against me, and wishing a ticket, can get an order for one by calling on me on board the boat. The person drawing the gold watch can have $100 in gold coin, if preferred.
C. P. FERRY, Broker, R. J. LADD, ex-Sheriff, AL ZIEBER, U. S. Marshal, and C. S. SILVER, Merchant, of Portland, are the Committee and Judges to direct the Drawing of Prizes. The Prizes will be drawn before the 1st of August, if all the tickets are taken before that time.
The above liberal offer is made to the traveling public to enable the subscriber to pay his debts, and not with any reference to speculation, as all the property is valued at much less than its cost, (the Steamer alone having cost $11,000), and the price for carrying passengers to Astoria being much less than the usual fare.
Portland May 21, 1867. d2m J. W. KERN.

Notice.
OWING TO THE STEAMER U. S. GRANT having lost several regular trips, she will continue to run for a few weeks, to give all ticket holders an opportunity to travel. The tickets stand good for a passage as long as the boat continues to run. A few more tickets yet to be disposed of.

MINING TOOLS—A Large Stock on hand and for sale by H. W. CORBETT & CO.

The Military Force of the United States.

Our vast country boasts, as one of the truest marks of its greatness, that it has no standing army. An extreme jealousy of a standing army, has pervaded our history from the earliest moment. From the day of the Boston Massacre—when the first blood of the revolution was shed in a collision between the British troops and the then British subjects of Boston—this jealousy has increased, and has controlled our public councils and regulated our system of national defence. It was the principle involved which imparted to the Boston Massacre its chief horror, and invested it with a sublime importance. The ultimate cause of the transaction was the indignity and insult which had been offered to the people in the attempt to reduce them to political servitude by the threatening presence of a standing army. Our fathers were not slaves. No men that ever lived had higher claims to freedom, or a better appreciation of the true principles of liberty. This attempt to overawe them called the sense of freedom into action, and on the 5th of March, 1770, gave rise to the first declaration of American independence, enforced by a practical example. The event was followed by a firm and determined demand for the removal of the troops, whose intimidating presence was so odious to the people. Samuel Adams, Joseph Warren and others, a committee of the town, waited on the British governor to insist that nothing short of a total evacuation of the town by all the regular troops would satisfy the people. After various make shifts to avoid the demand, the Governor yielded, and the troops were removed. This was the moral result of the Boston Massacre. The end was a triumph of liberty, by whatever steps it had been attained. The great lesson taught by the event was, that the rulers of a free people are powerless to do them wrong. The Constitution, which gives to Congress the power to declare war, wisely provides that no appropriation for raising and supporting an army shall be for a longer term than two years. It also provides, significantly, that no soldier shall in time of peace be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner. Among the "injuries and usurpations" charged against the King of Great Britain in the Declaration of Independence, was the fact that he had kept standing armies among us in time of peace, without the consent of our legislatures. Our regular military force has always been limited to local purposes; has scarcely ever been adequate to the demands even of our insufficient system of frontier posts; and has never in any sense been a standing army. A volunteer militia has been our habitual and natural reliance for great and sudden emergencies; and hitherto it has nobly sustained the confidence which has been placed in it. This is our standing army. It is the army of the people, and can only be employed in defence of the people's liberties and rights.

Previous to the civil war our regular military force was about 15,000, all told. We had then but one major general, General Scott, three brigadiers—Wool, now on the retired list, Smith, deceased, and Twiggs, dismissed, having become one of the most infamous traitors of the rebellion. The whole number of commissioned officers was 105—a large number for so small an army; but one third of them, at least, as is the case at the present time, were not employed in the army proper, but in the various departments connected with its management, such as the Adjutant Generals, Quartermaster Generals, ordnance, subsistence, medical, and pay departments, the topographical and engineer corps, and the academic staff at West Point. The army, embracing as it then did, two regiments of dragoons, two of cavalry, and one of mounted riflemen, besides four companies of horse artillery, employed about 3000 horses, besides which there were in the trains and garrisons about 5000 horses and mules.

The present army of the United States as established by a late law of Congress, consists of five regiments of artillery, ten of cavalry, and forty-five of infantry. The number of commissioned officers is 2999, including one general, one lieutenant-general, 10 brigadier-generals, 442 officers of cavalry, 385 of artillery, and 1579 of infantry, in the army proper, and the following, who are employed in the semi civil service of the various bureaus of the War Department, namely, 1 adjutant general and 19 assistant adjutant-generals, 9 inspector-generals, 1 judge-advocate general and 1 assistant judge-advocate-general, 1 quartermaster-general, 6 assistant quartermaster generals, 10 deputy quartermaster-generals, 15 quartermasters, 44 assistant-quartermasters, 1 commissary general of subsistence, 4 assistant commissary generals, 24 commissaries, 1 surgeon general, 1 assistant surgeon-general, 1 medical-purveyor, 4 assistant medical-purveyors, 60 surgeons, 150 assistant surgeons, 5 military storekeepers, 1 paymaster-general, 2 assistant paymaster-generals, 2 deputy paymaster-generals, 60 paymasters, 1 chief engineer, 6 colonels, 12 lieutenant-colonels, 24 majors, 30 captains, and 26 lieutenants of engineers, 1 chief-of-ordnance, 3 colonels, 4 lieutenant-colonels, 10 majors, 20 captains and 20 lieutenants of ordnance, 13 storekeepers, and 1 chief-signal-officer. The total number of enlisted men is 51,582, making the grand aggregate of the army 54,581. Of the enlisted men only 36,280 are privates, the remainder being sergeants, corporals, musicians, trumpeters, hospital stewards, artificers, saddlers, wagoners, &c. This is the minimum strength of the army, allowing 64 men to a company of artillery and 50 to a company of infantry. If all the companies of the infantry arm were increased to 100, as they may be, at the discretion of the President, whenever the exigencies of the service require it, and if the artillery companies were also increased to the full complement allowed by law, the total number of enlisted men would be 77,259, and the grand aggregate of the army, 80,258.

Two of the cavalry and four of the infantry regiments are composed of colored men, and four of the infantry regiments constitute what is called the Veteran Reserve Corps. Men who have been wounded in the army, and are unfitted for full service, may be enlisted and assigned to this corps, which is devoted to garrison and other light duty, and which is officered by appointment from officers and soldiers of volunteers or of the regular army, who have been wounded in the late war and who may yet be competent for the duties to which the corps is assigned. The army list embraces 15 bands, the whole number of musicians allowed being 360. All enlistments must be made for five years for cavalry and three years for artillery and infantry service. The Judge-Advocate General's department is called the Bureau of Military Justice, in which are received, revised and recorded the proceedings of all courts-martial, courts of inquiry, and military commissions, and all Judge-Advocates perform their duties under the direction of the Judge Advocate General. The office of sutler, which has on the whole been a source of corruption and demoralization in the army, is now abolished, and the subsistence department is required to furnish such articles as may be designated by the Inspector Generals, and which are to be sold to officers and men at cost prices. A chaplain, to be appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate, is attached to each of the regiments of colored troops, whose duty includes the instruction of the men in the common English branches of education. Chaplains in other regiments are not commissioned officers. The military spirit engendered by the late war is fostered and encouraged by the late law, which provides that for the purpose of promoting knowledge of military science among young men, the President may, upon the application of an established college or university, with sufficient capacity to educate at one time not less than one hundred and fifty male students, detail an officer of the army to act as President, or Professor—the number of officers so detailed not to exceed twenty at any time.

We are not able to state what number of horses are now attached to the army directly or indirectly. It is very large, of course—say 20,000. The number destroyed in the late war was immense—hundreds of thousands. The number destroyed through carelessness and ill-usage, not to say cruelty, was very large, far exceeding the number killed in action. This was owing mainly to a lack of knowledge of the care of horses, and to the want of an efficient veterinary system, which ought to form a part of every well organized army. It is as difficult almost to supply horses suitable for army service as it is to furnish competent recruits. The supply of the late volunteer army was miserably defective in respect to quality and was the source of infinite and shameless fraud. It is more difficult to take care of horses, and to preserve their health, than it is that of men. There is no organized department or hospital for them, and hundreds die every year for want of proper attention. It has been recommended that there should be organized and placed under a competent head a veterinary corps for every mounted regiment, and that a veterinary school be established, where commissioned and non-commissioned officers of dragoons, mounted riflemen, and light artillery may receive competent instruction in all that relates to the care, management, and diseases of horses. Congress ought to make it a matter of national interest and value as well as pride to secure to the army, what it much needs, a veterinary school and a hospital for diseased horses. Meanwhile a step in advance has been taken in the late law by providing a veterinary surgeon for each cavalry regiment.

Our army, small as it is, constituting what is called the peace establishment, is spread over a territory as large as all Europe. The present geographical divisions and departments, twenty-two in number, extend from the eastern coast to the Gulf, and over the plains and mountains to California, Oregon and Washington, and even to our new possessions on Behring's Straits and the Arctic Ocean—embracing the divisions of the Atlantic, Mississippi, Gulf, Tennessee, and Pacific, and the departments of the East, Middle, Washington, Ohio, Cumberland, Missouri, the Platte, Virginia, the Carolinas, South Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, the Columbia, and California. Gen. Scott used to say that our army was anything but a peace establishment, being almost constantly in pursuit of Indians, through swamps and mountains, in heats and snows, with no inconsiderable loss of life from frequent combats, and a still greater mortality from excessive labor, deprivation, and consequent disease. Previous to the late war, the desertions sometimes exceeded 3,000 in a single year, or as one to every five men of the army, and as to casualties by wounds and disease, the Surgeon General's report, ten years ago, when the mean strength of the army was 14,000, showed about 1,000 officers and men on the sick list, and there occurred during the year 16,310 cases of wounds and disease, of which number 252 were discharged and 368 died. The proportion of cases of disease was 3.20 to 1, so that on an average each individual was sick or wounded three and one fifth times during the year. This looks like severe service. That there was some action was evinced by the fact that the number of wounded was 4,610. It is believed that no peace army establishment in the world can exhibit such a list of casualties.

JOHNSON AND THE DEMOCRATS.—The Chicago Tribune of September 30th, referring to the N. Y. World's repudiation of Johnson by the Democratic party, gives the following interesting political information:

It appears that some time since Andrew Johnson communicated to the Democratic leaders a proposition to make his administration a Democratic one; that he would get rid of Seward, McCulloch, Welles, Stanton, Randall, Browning and Stanbery, if the Democratic party would furnish him with a respectable cabinet, and the names of Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland; Robert McClelland, of Michigan; Jerry Black, of Pennsylvania; and T. Lyle Dicky, of Illinois, were mentioned. He promised the utter termination of all political relations between himself and the Republican party, and begged the Democracy to take him and the administration, to use both for the advancement of the Democratic party in the State and National elections. The proposition has been for a long time before the Democratic leaders, and thus far has been uniformly rejected and repudiated. Jerry Black alone, of all the Democratic leaders, listened to the offer, and he has been for many weeks laboring with might and main, but unavailingly to induce Democrats to accept places in the Johnsonian Democratic cabinet. The proposition has been submitted to Democrats in all parts of the country, and the answer has been uniform that it should not be accepted.

The World, therefore, when it formally rejected all political association with Johnson, spoke by the card, spoke by authority, and in fact delivered the formal verdict of the Democratic party against Andrew Johnson.

THE TWO CAUSES.—Remarking upon the result of the Eastern election, the Alta says:

"That this result is due to a complicated variety of causes would be conceding more refinement of reasoning to the masses of the people than we are willing to allow. The reasons are only two in number. Public opinion is not yet ready for the adoption of universal suffrage in the Northern States, and the people are impatient of the onerous burdens of an ill managed system of taxation.

No one of these causes singly might have sufficed to elect in Ohio such a man as Allen Thurman, a rank Copperhead and an intimate companion of Vallandigham, but popular discontent with the do nothing financial policy of Congress and popular repugnance to the doctrines of negro suffrage, as presented, were sufficient to accomplish even this great change in the politics of Ohio. [Thurman is defeated.] At least 40,000 votes in that State go with the current and attach themselves long to no party; these have chiefly decided the fortunes of the day.—In Pennsylvania the case is essentially the same, though the issue was not so markedly presented, and consequently the vote is lighter and the majority not astonishing. We do not consider that the Reconstruction policy of Congress has entered into the contest in the States where elections have just been held in any degree which would influence the main result. That policy has been indorsed too many times by the people to need a popular verdict upon it now.

OUR FIFTEEN INCH GUN.—The New York Times of September 28th thus remarks about the test of this gun in England:

"Well, the American navy 12 inch gun has at last, thanks to the indignant protests of a few American journalists, had justice done to it by the British artillerists at Shoeburyness, and nobly has it vindicated itself. It received, at last, a proper "meal" of powder, namely 100 pounds, and it responded to that treatment by sending its projectile "entirely through" the target. This target is no ordinary affair, but an 8-inch solid iron plate, with an enormous oak backing. The plate is a magnificent one in its power of resistance to shot, the work of the famous workshop of John Brown & Sons—let us rather say, Sir John Brown, for he has lately been knighted for his splendid successes in iron working. What will the London Times, the Pall Mall Gazette the Standard, the Engineer, the Mechanics' Magazine, and, indeed, the entire press of England, who have been triumphantly crowing over the "failure" of the 15 inch gun, say to this result! What new algebraic formula will be devised by Captain Noble, who, in accordance with the opinion of every engineer and artillerist of Great Britain, demonstrated lately (to the great satisfaction of the Nation, which copied his figures), that the 15-inch gun could not even pierce the Lord Warden target, an affair of only about half the strength of this Shoeburyness target!"

WHO KILLED MAXIMILIAN?—Who killed Maximilian? Let the American Government, Napoleon, and the Pope reflect upon that question before giving it an answer.

There was no hope for the Emperor of Mexico after he had fallen into the hands of Juarez. The interposition of the American Government was a mere formality, and Juarez treated it as such. If the American Government had been in earnest, the American Government would have said "Maximilian shall not be slain!" The interposition was only that of a fond old woman, when seeing a cruel boy torturing a fly, she might gently ask him not to torture the fly. Juarez knew what such interposition was worth. The cowardly wretch, worse than some beasts of prey, must needs keep the lifeless remains of his enemy in sight, to glut his revenge with the spectacle of the dead body, and the wounds he has made. When it suits the purpose of the American Government the hero of the moment will be hanged upon a tree, but whatever objects may be cherished in the American mind, we do not think the result will be so satisfactory to the authors as they think. By the very force of annexation the great republic will be broken.

Since the late election in Tennessee the State bonds of that Commonwealth have advanced five per cent in the New York market. Now that it is known that Tennessee is a free State, with the flag of our Government floating triumphantly over every section of it, the bonds will not only go up, but Northern capital will be better disposed towards investment of all kinds in the State.

The Development of the Iron Interest.

[From the San Francisco Bulletin.]

A few years ago specimens of Lake Superior iron were handed about and examined with eager curiosity. The country was a long remove from the centre of business and population; copper ore might possibly pay the cost of transportation, but iron ore never. Puddling works were finally erected on a small and cheap scale; the scrub-trees were converted into charcoal, and the business of making iron from the ore at one operation was commenced. The metal turned out to be the best ever produced in the country. But the difficulties of transportation were great. In the year 1855 the Sault St. Mary's Canal was opened, so that vessels from the lower lakes could enter Lake Superior. The shipments of ore in that year were 1,445 tons; since then these shipments have increased as follows:

	Tons		Tons
In 1856	11,594	In 1862	115,720
In 1857	26,184	In 1863	185,275
In 1858	31,135	In 1864	235,127
In 1859	65,079	In 1865	176,708
In 1860	116,994	In 1866	285,243
In 1861	46,430

These mines produced altogether in 1866, 306,252 tons, a part of which were used for the blast furnaces in the locality of the mines. The cities of Detroit, Cleveland and Buffalo owe more of their present prosperity to the fact that they have become great depositories of ore from the Lake Superior mines, than to any other interest. Ore is transported from 600 to 1,000 miles, and then so profitably worked that nearly all the manufacturers and iron mongers have become wealthy, and have started these vigorous cities of the West on a new career of prosperity.

The development of a great iron interest on this coast will secure the same beneficial results. We may find no ore beds like those of the Lake Superior region; but native iron exists, and every year adds to our stock of knowledge in respect to these resources. There is scarcely a county in the State in which there are not deposits of this mineral of more or less value. The Coast Range has never been thoroughly explored for iron ore; but here and there surface deposits have been found, indicating considerable richness. A good iron mine in any one of the coast counties, might be developed with greater certainty of profit than a silver mine. If $1,000 were offered for the discovery of an inexhaustible deposit of iron ore of a definite richness, and within a moderate distance of navigable water, we should soon hear of some enterprising man coming up to claim the premium. The Bessemer steel process now coming into general use, is working a great revolution in the value and production of this metal, and has incidentally increased the prospective value of all iron ore deposits on this coast.

In Oregon a considerable advance has been made in the production of pig iron. The blast furnace is located six miles above Portland, and the ore is said to be of about the richness of 35 per cent. The furnace turns out about 12 tons a day. Half a dozen such furnaces could not supply the present consumption on this coast. What has been done is rather an earnest of what is to be done in this direction at no distant day. If rich iron ores were found even so far distant as Alaska and near the coast, cheap water transportation would bring them within the reach of manufacturers. We hear of extensive deposits in that region, now hardly more remote than the mines of Lake Superior from Buffalo. Difficulties, no doubt, will be encountered in the production of crude iron. But there are not likely to be more formidable than such as have been successfully overcome in developing gold and silver mines. There is a certain fascination about the development of the precious metals. But the grosser metals have always insured the greatest wealth.

Then, too, there are traces of lead all over the country. Some rich deposits are known in connection with silver. But we have not a productive lead mine on this coast. Lead bars are brought from Saxony to supply the lead manufactory of this city. A few thousand dollars judiciously expended in premiums for the most meritorious discoveries of iron and lead ore would secure most important results. If we have no society through which such inducements can be offered, then our manufacturers and metal workers by private enterprise can do something to stimulate these most important discoveries.

PUBLISHING PRIVATE LETTERS.—The following is from the Chicago Tribune:

Andrew Johnson has an unprincipled habit of publishing private letters. A year ago or more he published one addressed to him by Hon. C. A. Dana. Shortly afterward he printed one written by Col. Forney, and still later he has sent to the press one indited by Horace Greeley—the object in each instance being to render the writers foolish in the estimation of the public. It is stated that Mr. Johnson intends to publish a large collection of similar letters between now and the next Presidential election.

A burglar named Frank Riley was arrested in this city yesterday for the crime of breaking open a safe in Louisville, Ky., and taking therefrom the sum of $46,000. Among the assets found on his person by the officers of justice, was the following letter:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13, 1866.

Henry A. Smythe, Collector of Customs, New York—Sir: This will introduce to your favorable consideration Frank Riley, of New York city, with whose character I became acquainted in Tennessee, and whom I commend to you as worthy of a suitable appointment under you.

With great respect,
Very truly yours,
ANDREW JOHNSON.

This document was in a very dilapidated condition, arising from constant use, as Mr. Riley informed the officers. A great many people, he said, had wanted to see it. The public curiosity will be gratified now to an extent not dreamed of by Mr. Riley or the humble individual who became acquainted with his character in Tennessee. When the Johnson collection of private letters comes to be published, this one will naturally adorn the title page.

The car festival of the Juggernaut has hardly been a success this year in the Poore district of Hindoostan. The car is a ponderous erection, on ten pair of wheels, each one made of an enormous piece of wood. The painted block which does duty for Juggernaut is in a tower on the top, and the other turrets are filled with priests who clang cymbals, strike bells, beat drums, blow conchshells, and infuriate or amuse the people in a truly diabolical fashion. And all this in the midst of a fair on the main road to Calcutta, at the entrance to the Christian village founded by Carey, Marshman and Ward, from which native evangelists go forth preaching to the crowds.

NOTICE
TO THE
Tax-Payers of Multnomah County.

UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE LAW NOW IN force, relating to the collection of taxes, all taxes are required to be paid on or before the

FIRST DAY OF APRIL OF EACH YEAR.

If not paid by that time, all real estate with taxes not paid thereon will be immediately advertised and sold for taxes at the expense of the owner thereof; and Personal Property will be levied upon immediately after the expiration of 30 days from the time of my visit to the Precincts for the purpose of collecting Taxes.

I will, therefore, in pursuance of law, meet the Tax-Payers of Multnomah county at their respective places of voting, in each precinct, on the following days, to-wit:

Sauvie's Island, Thursday, November 7th.
St. John's, Friday, November 8th
Powell's Valley, Saturday, November 9th.
Sandy, Monday, November 11th.
Willamette, Tuesday, November 12th.
Multnomah, Wednesday, November 13th.
East Portland, Thursday, November 14th
Fulton Friday, November 15th.
North Portland, Saturday, November 16th.
Central Portland, Monday, November 18th.
South Portland, Hayden's building, Tuesday, November 19th

I will be punctually at each of the above named places at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. and remain until 4 o'clock P. M. of each day.

JACOB STITZEL,
Sheriff and Tax Collector
For Multnomah County, Oregon

THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 24, 1867

Who the Grumblers Are.

It is observable that the outcry about "high taxes" proceeds almost entirely from the political party to whose action the high taxes are due. The true Union men of the country meet their obligations to the Government without murmuring, but the Democrats complain incessantly, and even rave furiously, about the burdens of taxation. The cause of this difference is not that Union men are glad of an opportunity to pay taxes; there is no reason why they should like it any better than the Democrats do, particularly as they know that the latter are chiefly responsible for the creation of the debt and of the high taxes which are caused by it. But those who were true to the Union in its time of trial thought that no expenditure of blood or money was too great a sacrifice for its preservation, and they think so still. They considered the cost when they undertook to fight the rebellion down; and though they fully realize the magnitude of the outlay, they think it was not too much to pay for the results which have been and which will be secured. Perhaps it is but natural for those who thought the Union was not worth fighting for to grumble at the price which has been paid for it; and no doubt it would be too much to expect that those who sympathised with and aided the enemies of the country in the very agony of the war, will now cheerfully assist in lightening the burden which was caused in great part by their own recreancy to duty. Hence it is not surprising that they should keep up a perpetual clamor about high taxes. All know that the taxes are heavy, and all feel the burden. Nor are there any who are more anxious to so adjust this burden that it may bear upon the country with the least possible severity, than are those who did not shrink from patriotic duty when they found it necessary to fight rebellion. The difference between the two parties is this: The Unionists thought that the country was worth fighting for, and believe that the debt ought therefore be paid; while the Copperheads deemed the country not worth fighting for and therefore hold that the payment of the debt is a waste of money. Hence the Copperhead scheme to print greenbacks enough to pay off the debt, which is but a poorly disguised method of repudiation. If they would stop their clamor against the payment of the debt and cease to talk about repudiation, we might borrow money enough at low rates to fund the whole debt and so materially lighten our financial burdens; but while a large party in the country is advocating repudiation in one form or another, such a result will be impossible.

Spirit of the State Press.

The Unionist thinks that the checks which the Republican party has lately experienced are due in a great measure to the halting, irresolute course pursued by Congress in reference to the President. It believes that if Congress had acted with prompt energy in removing Johnson out of the way of reconstruction, the people would have applauded, and the act would have been sustained. But it has sought to hem him round with insufficient legislation, instead of adopting the one plain and effectual remedy. Of the consequence of this paltering, the Unionist thus speaks:

> Whenever the Union party falters, or seeks to accomplish its purposes by other than forward movements, it alienates the affection of its most ardent members. In 1862, when the authorities at Washington hesitated to remove Generals that the great mass of the people believed had neither the capacity nor inclination to lead their armies to victory, local elections went against that party, and in 1867 we see the same thing repeated. Remove President Johnson, and render further doubtful if not dangerous, or at least circuitous legislation unnecessary—give the nation a reasonable hope that the leaders have the nerve to carry into complete operation their plan for the reconstruction of the South, and the thundering majorities of 1866 will again carry dismay to traitors and assurance and content to the loyal people throughout the land.

The Record says that the party was "overloaded" in the late elections, and makes the following remarks on the subject:

> We do not hesitate to declare our sympathy with the great moral questions of the day, and our intention to fulfill a duty in endeavoring to advance every good cause, so far as lies within our sphere. We do not believe it possible, however, to advance temperance by legislation, in this State, certainly not until the majority of the voting population are decidedly in favor of prohibition. Nor is it advisable to make an issue of party upon a law to enforce the keeping of the Sabbath. It is the duty of religious men to advance religion by right moral influences; to educate public sentiment and elevate humanity by earnest effort. It is vain for a minority to attempt to force laws upon the country. And the coupling of moral questions with political issues will surely embarrass the latter, without any benefit to the former.
> It is time the Republican party everywhere narrowed down the issues upon which it makes the present contest, so that no man who loves his country will be driven from its ranks.

The State Journal is sharp after the Herald because of the latter's declaration that there are more criminals in the prisons now than there were in the days of Democratic administration, and that pauperism has also largely increased. The Journal does not doubt that there are more convictions now for high crimes and misdemeanors than there were when the Democratic party was in the ascendancy. But it points to the very significant fact that the larger portion of the inmates of the penitentiaries are Democrats. It adds:

> Nor are all convicted that deserve it. For instance a Democratic member of the present Legislature, had a pretty close shave of the penitentiary, and, perhaps, if the law had its own, this Hon. Democratic Legislator, would have met some distinguished members of his party at the brick yard.
> But would it not be the cheapest to put some of the paupers and villains in the offices and thereby dispense with poor houses, and penitentiaries, and be the most civilized, as reporting neither paupers nor convictions?

The Journal in another article adverts to the same subject as follows:

> He goes to the census for proof. He finds more paupers reported in the North than in the South. But he does not tell that thousands more of the destitute of Europe, are landed North than South, and for obvious reasons, which the Herald knows, just as well as any one else. There are no paupers reported by the savages at all. The South never troubled itself much about the unfortunate, it was as destitute of asylums as it was of school houses. According to his reasoning the way to give the best evidence of civilization is to have no asylums for the unfortunate and therefore report no paupers.
> The same reasoning applies to crime. The way to show a good record is to have no convictions. He finds fewer convictions in the South than in the North, therefore the South is most civilized. The four hundred thousand savages in the Territories of the United States have, almost no convictions, then they are more civilized than even the South.

The Journal's conclusion on this subject is that "if any town, district, or locality, should become so utterly bad and abandoned, that no convictions could take place, it would just suit the Herald's ideas of civilization—it would be Democratic of course.

The Albany Journal says of those who object to the means which have been employed for the restoration of the Union:

> Their reverence for the Constitution is of a parcel with that reverence which in the early part of the war compelled our soldiers to march all day hungry and with parched lips rather than allow them to take from traitors the necessaries of life which they refused to sell to any man who wore the uniform of his country.

The Sentinel has heard of the "call" which was issued some days ago for a Democratic mass meeting in Portland, and the announcement that "our noble party has beaten the enemy in three more States,"—which announcement, however, "lacks confirmation." But the Sentinel is moved to speak on the subject, which it does as follows:

> It provokes a smile to hear of the noble party "beating the enemy." It reminds us of the rebel huzzas after Bull Run, and Manassas, and Fredericksburg, and several other little places where the "enemy" got whipped. Parties are sadly mistaken, sometimes. We thought Democracy was dead as an Egyptian mummy, and now it turns up as lively as a maggoty cheese.

The Mountaineer has an oracular political article, which, however, is so declamatory that its exact meaning does not clearly appear. But we know that the Mountaineer is a good Republican paper, and that its intentions are of the best kind. We must be pardoned, however, for saying that when we read the article and undertook to interpret it, we were reminded of the response of the Pythonissa to Pyrrhus, and the difficulty which Pyrrhus had in deciding whether he was to subdue the Romans or the Romans were to subdue him.

> I say that you the Romans will subdue.

The editor of the Columbia Press having been absent from his post for some time, his paper of course wants the interest that his pen, which is accustomed to indite none other than Democratic principles of the most approved orthodoxy, usually gives it. But Mr. Dow has this week returned to his post, and we may therefore expect some "Democracy" of an intelligible sort before long. The Press this week devotes a large amount of its space to an inquiry whether Wilkes Booth is alive. It is noticeable that Democrats take a wonderful degree of interest in this subject.

He of the Albany Democrat, whose political creed consists of a firm and unyielding resolution "not to marry a nigger," feels encouraged with his prospects and those of his party, and exhorts as follows:

> Democrats, everywhere, should cheer up. After a long, dreary, black night—full of bitterness, and heart-rending woe, and desolation—the day-star appears. It is the harbinger of better and brighter days.

Undoubtedly it has been a "long dreary night" to the Democracy. But that party should not put too much faith in the appearance of the "day-star." It may be delusive. When Bull Run and Chancellorville were decided, the party thought they saw the light breaking. As it remembers its great disappointment on those occasions, it should be less credulous now.

The Democrat also insists on the taxation of bonds. The most charitable supposition is that it is ignorant of the subject it is talking of.

We searched the Chronicle received this week through attentively, and finding nothing in it that could interest anybody, not even so much as an apology for its existence, we handed the paper to a friend, and asked him to suggest an apology for its appearance. In five minutes he handed the paper back, "gave it up," and so did we.

The Courier has a two column article beseeching those Democrats who joined the Union party at the commencement of the rebellion to quit the organization. Having gone over to the Copperheads himself, the editor is advising other people to prove equally treacherous. Had Judas proposed to the remaining eleven to apostatize, the Courier's advice would then have a precedent.

But the Courier is not wholly devoted to this topic. It finds room for a short article on the improvement of navigation of the Yamhill river, from which we make an extract:

> Until there is a considerable increase of water, boats cannot come to this place, or McMinnville. With a five feet lock at the mouth of the Yamhill, which Capt. Anderson estimates could be built for from $1,500 to $3,000, the Yamhill would be an excellent navigable stream to La Fayette, at all seasons of the year, and to McMinnville, during seven or eight months. From several gentlemen who have thought of and examined into this matter we learn that Capt. Anderson's is an over estimate. We are satisfied that the P. T. Co. would take charge of and help in its construction. Will our Representatives at Washington look to this matter?

Official Returns in California.—Official returns are published showing the vote in all the counties of California. The average vote received by the Democratic candidates was 46,221. The average Republican vote is about 42,000. In the last gubernational election (in 1863) the Democratic vote was 44,715. Their gains in the late election were therefore 3,506,—an astonishingly small increase when we consider the demoralized condition of the Republican party. The Republican or Union vote of the State is over 22,000 smaller than in the State election of 1863. The highest vote cast in the election of last month was 92,776,—that being cast for Treasurer. For this officer the Democratic majority is only 2,978. The vote for Governor in 1867 is 19,408 smaller than the vote for Governor in 1863, and 16,321 smaller than the vote for President in 1864. To sum up, the official figures show that the actual gains of the Democrats are only 3,500 votes, and that from 15,000 to 20,000 Union men did not vote at all. We shall carry California in the Presidential election by 10,000 majority.

The "veteran editor" is still muttering about the exemption of Government securities from taxation, but says, "We must not raise our voices against the system lest the hirelings of party"—(fish hag's dialect)—"should accuse us of demagoguism and impute to us ignorance or dishonesty." This prudence is highly commendable. For the probability is that the "veteran" would not only have ignorance or dishonesty imputed to him, but that both would be proved against him as has heretofore been the case. The best way for him to avoid such exposure in future is to preserve a judicious silence.

In the late election in Maine, the Democratic vote was smaller than in the election of 1864. Yet for six weeks the Democratic papers have been talking of their "gains" in Maine.

The 40th Congress stands Republicans 147; Democrats, 46. The former has gained two, and the lost one, the Nebraska member, making the one extra.

IN MEMORIAM.

At a stated communication of Temple Lodge No 7, A. F. and A. M., held in Masonic Hall, Astoria, October 19th, A. D. 1867, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, When a good man passes away from the scenes of this life to that "undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns," it is meet and fitting and the duty of those who have traveled with him to perpetuate his virtues and whereas, it has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to take from our number Bro O. J. Trouchard, M. D., a Past Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Oregon, F. and A. M., and a Past Master of this Lodge, therefore, as the sense of this Lodge, it is

Resolved, That in his death, the Fraternity have lost a zealous supporter, his family an indulgent and kind father and husband, and Oregon one among her best citizens.

Resolved, That while we with dimmed eyes and sorrowful hearts view this evidence of our mortality, and the sudden severance of early ties and associations, we rejoice that we are assured that God will awaken our Brother from his death sleep and give unto him that blessed and complete life that hath no second death.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved wife and children of our deceased Brother our heartfelt sympathies in this their great affliction, with the assurance that we trust that He who "tempers the wind to the shorn lamb" may afford them that support and consolation which we cannot, except by the assurance that he is not "lost but gone before."

Resolved, That the members of this Lodge are instructed to wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of sixty days, and that this hall be draped for the same space of time.

Resolved, That the Secretary cause a copy of these resolutions, with the seal of this Lodge affixed thereto, to be furnished to the family of our deceased Brother, and also that a copy be furnished to the Portland papers for publication. Attest H. S. AIKEN, Sec'y

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

San Francisco, Oct 23.—J. C. Bell, the well known carpet dealer, was arrested to-day on the complaint of Samuel G. Shelton, charging him with perjury before a Sheriff's jury. Bell was admitted to bail and the case set for examination on Saturday next.

The account published yesterday in regard to the death of Christopher Conrad by drowning is not true. Old Christopher appeared in person at the Coroner's office and contradicted the statement.

The negro Thomas, who killed Deputy Sheriff Richardson at Oakland yesterday, is in jail at San Leandro. The excitement has since in have quieted down. Thomas claims to have acted in self defence. He says he has always been a good man, a Christian and has preached the gospel to the colored people of Oakland.

The Grand Division of Sons of Temperance commenced its session in this city yesterday, Joseph Weed, G. W. P. presiding.

The will of L. B. Quint was filed for probate to-day. He wills that all his property, real and personal, after all lawful debts are paid, shall go to his wife, Amelia Quint.

Henry Herbert commenced suit against Wm. Towne and wife for slander. He says Towne's wife accused him of theft, robbery, etc. He claims $30,000 damages.

Mary A. Bohen has filed a complaint against a man named McIntyre charging him with obtaining money under false pretences. He represented to her that a certain piece of land could be purchased for not less than $600. She gave him that sum, but he only paid $300 for the land, and pocketed the balance.

The Immigration Aid Society held a meeting last night. The committee on promoting European immigration made an interesting report. They recommend that the Legislature create a Board of Immigration and appropriate $100,000, to be raised by a tax of 20 cents per head; that an immigrant barracks be erected for the accommodation of immigrants free of charge, and that agencies be established at the principal seaports of Europe.

A stockholders' meeting of the Hale & Norcross Mining Co. is called for Nov. 27th, to consider the proposition to increase the capital from $400,000 to $1,200,000 by trebling the value of the shares.

The steamer California from Victoria arrived to-day.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—The California brings $333,829 in treasure.

Mayor McDonald, of Victoria, has been renominated for the office.

After examining Burrard Inlet, Admiral Hastings has decided in favor of Esquimalt for a Government dry dock.

The Colonist urges a vigorous demonstration in favor of seeking an alliance with the Canadian Confederation.

Jno. King, the defaulting contractor, has been heard of at Port Madison, W. T. He landed with the evident design of taking ship for a foreign port.

The prize fight between Wilson and Eden was sold by the former. Wilson justifies his conduct by saying that his backers had not treated him right.

COMMON COUNCIL.—Regular meeting, Wednesday evening, October 23d Mayor Chapman in the chair

Roll called by the Clerk Present—Councilmen Besser Butch Fechheimer, Hallock Porter and Rosenheim—6 Absent—Councilmen Mulkey, McCraken and Ripley—3

Minutes of the last meeting read and approved

COMMUNICATIONS

From S J McCormick and Wm Dalton were received setting forth that the sewer on Columbia street was in bad condition and needed repairing On motion the City Auditor was instructed to give notice that the Council proposed improving the same from Fourth to Seventh street, at the expense of adjoining property

Also, from Joseph Knott relative to assessment against his property for the improvement at the intersection of Front and Jefferson streets was read, remonstrating against the payment of the same and on motion was referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property

Also, from H W Davis late Street Commissioner, relative to his acceptance of the work done by the contractor at the intersection of Front and Jefferson streets, while acting in his official capacity, making explanation etc, was read and adopted

A remonstrance from John A Blanchard guardian of Ruth A Lownsdale was read, remonstrating against the extension of Alder street through certain lands and on motion, was referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

STANDING COMMITTEES

Committee on Accounts and Current Expenses The report of this committee to whom was referred the quarterly report of the City Treasurer ending September 30, was read; stating they had examined the same and pronounced it correct, and on motion the report was adopted and the Treasurer's report ordered printed

Also, the same committee to whom was referred the report of the City Recorder, reported the same correct and on motion, a warrant was ordered drawn in his favor for $1 2.

The same committee, to whom was referred the petition of McLean for a lamp post at the corner of Second and Salmon streets reported adversely to the prayer Report adopted.

The Committee on Streets and Public Property, to whom was referred an ordinance for the improvement of Third from A to Harrison streets, reported the same back without recommendation

The same committee, to whom was referred the petition of the Portland Water Company asking for the privilege of grading and laying sidewalks adjoining lots 3 and 4 in block 250, reported favorable to the prayer, recommending that the petitioners be allowed to make the improvement. Report adopted

Also, the same committee, to whom was referred the petition of Joseph Meyer and others, praying for the erection of a lamp post at the corner of Third and Clay streets, recommended that the same be erected

The same committee reported an ordinance for the improvement of Salmon street from First to Park

Also reported an ordinance defining the duties and fixing the salary of the City Surveyor

Also, the same committee who were instructed to ascertain and report to the Council what it would cost to light certain lamps lately erected, reported that the same could be lighted, in their judgment, for $5 per lamp

The Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred the communication and bill of Mr. Zimmerman for fees as witness in the Recorder's court, reported the same correct, and on motion, the report of the committee was adopted and a warrant ordered drawn for the amount—$6 50

REPORTS OF OFFICERS.

A report from the City Surveyor was read, submitting profiles of surveys for the extension of certain streets connecting with the county, leading west from the city, which was, on motion, referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

A communication from the City Marshal was read relative to repairs, building, &c, needed for the city jail, which was referred to the Committee on Health and Police

Bill of E J Northrup & Co. for 22 lbs of rope furnished the Fire Department, $1 98 was paid.

BUSINESS ON THE TABLE.

An ordinance introduced by Councilman Hallock, providing for the time and manner of the improving of Oak street, between Front and Second streets, was read and passed, under a suspension of the rules.

Also, an ordinance, introduced by Councilman Besser, to amend ordinance 228, providing a penalty for indecent and disorderly conduct, was read and amended by striking out the words "and other unnatural noises," and passed under suspension of the rules.

Also, an ordinance, introduced by Councilman Hallock, providing for the time and manner of improving B street from the centre of North Fifth street to the west side of block 103, in Couch's Addition, was read the first and second time and laid over

Councilman Hallock introduced an ordinance making the following appropriations, in addition to the appropriations already made, to-wit: For the payment of City Attorney, $437 50; for the City Surveyor, $900, for small pox, $19 50; elections, $16 00—which was read three several times and passed, after suspending the rules.

An ordinance reported by the committee on Streets and Public Property, for the improvement of Salmon street from the west side of First to the centre of East Park street, was passed

Also an ordinance reported back by the same committee defining the duties and fixing the salary of the City Surveyor, was passed fixing the salary of the Surveyor at $7 per day; and allowing $3 per day for assistants

Also the ordinance reported back by the committee, providing for the time and mode of improving Third street from A to Harrison; passed.

And on motion of Councilman Hallock, the City Surveyor was instructed to make and report an estimate of the probable cost of building a bridge across Tanner Creek and report the same at the next meeting of the Board

Councilman Porter offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Auditor be and is directed on the 1st day of November to issue warrants for the collection of assessments for the improvement of Second between A and Madison, and on Alder street, between Front and Seventh streets, remaining unpaid at that date

A resolution was offered and passed, directing his Honor the Mayor to appoint a select committee to investigate the propriety and expediency of building a City Hall next year, which was read adopted and the Mayor appointed on said committee Councilmen Porter, Hallock and Besser.

Council adjourned

RECORDER'S COURT.—The following are the proceedings of yesterday in the Recorder's Court:

State vs. Alex Thompson, breaking down a gate, motion for a new trial, argued and submitted; decision will be rendered this morning

Haggin, arrested on the charge of feloniously taking a horse, the property of another, discharged, it appearing that he was not the man sought for This was one of those unfortunate cases where one person is put in a very uncomfortable position through being mistaken for another.

State vs Singer, assault and battery upon Mrs Wegner; trial by the court, defendant acquitted

THE WHEAT MARKET.—The wheat market has toned down considerably this week, buyers having less confidence in the continuance of high prices at the East and San Francisco There was no change yesterday from the day before except that there was a stronger disposition to discriminate as to quality The range was from 90c for common red, to $1 10 for extra choice white. The arrivals by team for two or three days have greatly fallen off.

U S DISTRICT COURT—AT CHAMBERS.—The argument in the case of Susan A Bennett vs. J Bennett was not concluded yesterday, the counsel for the defendant consuming the greater part of the day The argument will be continued to-day for the petitioner, against the motion to dismiss.

THE ORIFLAMME'S FREIGHT.—The steamship Oriflamme brought up between 600 and 700 tons merchandise The Okanagan lighted her of about 100 tons and the Cascade is expected to bring up about 250 tons With this amount taken out, it is thought the Oriflamme will be able to get off

THE SECOND GAME.—The second game in the match between the Spartans and the Shermans will be played at Vancouver next Saturday The very closely contested game played here between the two clubs last Saturday, will lend unusual interest to the second game

DISTRICT COURT FOR CLARKE COUNTY.—Judge Hewitt arrived at Vancouver Tuesday evening and opened court yesterday, much to the gratification of the parties litigant, jurors, witnesses and attorneys who had been waiting a couple of days with some impatience

THE CONGO TROUPE, played last evening to a fair house Graham and Dolavan were as jolly as ever and frequently brought the house down with thundering applause They play again this evening The Congos are presenting really very good performances

THE FIRST OF THE SEASON.—For several days or rather, nights, the weather has been decidedly wintry though perfectly clear Yesterday morning for the first time this season, ice formed in vessels standing out of doors and not connected with the ground

U S. CIRCUIT COURT.—In consequence of the pendency before Judge Deady, of the habeas corpus case—Bennett vs Bennett—the U S Circuit Court adjourned yesterday morning immediately after opening

EDITORIAL VISIT.—Mr Hand, editor of the Mountaineer called on us last evening, looking as hearty and jovial as ever. He is on his way to Salem We had a good laugh with "Bill" and he went on his way rejoicing

POSTPONED.—The sale of the lots in block 211, lately occupied by the Oregon Iron Works announced to take place yesterday, was postponed till Saturday the 26th

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.—We compile the following from the San Francisco papers of the 17th, received by steamer Oriflamme The Alta says: "Money is in good supply and the rates are unchanged—say 1@1½ at band The supply on long terms is free at 10@12 per cent per annum The firmness of the grain market has of late checked the demand for that direction while former purchases work off The uneasiness in relation to the state of affairs at the East consequent upon political dissensions seems to increase Late advices remark that the proposition of the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means in the House to pay off the Government loans in paper money has produced a certain distrust as leading to great paper inflation, which would carry gold to a high price On the other hand, the continuance of the policy pointing to a return to specie payments involves mercantile disaster and such a diminution of Government revenues as would affect the national credit Either way leads to grave apprehensions and in view of the attitude of Congress in respect to the Executive as influenced by the late elections it is stated hoarding gold in New York has given great support to the price At the last report the Treasury held $85 000 000, exclusive of gold certificates and on the 1st proximo $33 000 000 are to be paid out for interest on the 5 20s Those payments have, however never affected the market The present appearance is of high rates for gold

The grain market, consequent upon the rise of Wheat in Liverpool to 17s or $4 11 per sack and a price of $2 50@2 62½ here has come to a stand still The rise in grain in Liverpool without any corresponding movement at the East, requires explanation, and the market here hesitates The leading shippers are doing nothing and there have been no grain exports during the past week The mail advices from England up to the 7th September represent the crop prospects there as good The price was then in Liverpool 13s 10d or $3 35 per sack, at which price it had remained with little variation since June On the 28th, the price by telegraph was given at 14s 1d first week in October 15s 3d, and on the 10th, 17s per cental Those reported prices were unaccompanied by any explanation of the causes that led to such an advance The effect upon the market was to raise the pretentions of holders to $3 50@2 60 but to paralyze transactions These prices, at present rate of freight are equal to $3 50 per sack on board and are not justified by even the present high rates in Liverpool as given by telegraph There have been no clearances of Wheat this week except that of the Blackwall to day

The Times says The market for Flour and Wheat is unsettled by the Cable advices before noted by us Some of our largest operators are disposed to improve the occasion to run off their rejected lots that were accumulating upon their hands. These parcels now pay a handsome profit At the rise we see little disposition manifested to purchase freely, although some holders are now demanding 2⅞@3c ℔ ℔—as far as we are advised these are now esteemed extreme rates, and few, if any dealers have the pluck to enter the arena at these high figures Flour is now held above the proportionate rate for Wheat, and if present quotations are adhered to, shippers must soon withdraw from the market Barley, Oats, Hay, as well as Feed stuff generally, are neglected—Breadstuffs apparently absorbing all other interests. The supply of good Potatoes is short, and we are therefore obliged to draw heavily from Humboldt for supplies Those thus far received are of prime quality, selling readily at 1¾@2c per pound.

The market for Beef and Mutton is well supplied, prices are stationary Hogs are abundant and cheap.

The supply of Game is considerable, which has a depressing effect upon Domestic Fowls, etc Quail and venison are plentiful at moderate prices. We quote Hens, ℔ dozen, $7@7 50; large young $6@7; spring Chickens $4@5.

Butter—in firkins, 30@32½c Cheese, 14@15c Eggs 50c per dozen

Fruit—No particular change in the market since our last report Apples continue in plentiful supply at reasonable rates. The fact is, our fruit supply is superabundant, and we are sorry to add that hundreds of boxes are daily left to rot, and are thrown overboard for want of buyers. Growers had better by far keep half their fruit at home and dry it, in the latter case it would pay handsomely for the labor bestowed thereupon The following wholesale prices are furnished by S. W. Gale & Co: Apples, Choice, $1@1 50 ℔ box; common, 50@75c Pears: Bartlett, $4 50; Seckel, 5@6c ℔ ℔; common, 75c@$1 ℔ box.

Fish—Oregon salmon are quotable at $7 50@9 for bbls, and $4 50@5 50 for hf barrels.

The British bark Amelia has been chartered to load for China.

The D. C. Murray, from Honolulu, to Williams, Blanchard & Co., had 2,244 pkgs Sugar, 537 bbls Molasses, 192 bales Pulu, etc.

The Narragansett, from Ohcotsk Sea, brought 65,000 Codfish, 690 Salmon, 14 bbls Cod Liver Oil, etc

There is due at this port within twenty days a fleet of twenty whalers, quite a number not here last year, having been tailored to this port to recruit

The steamship Idaho, for Honolulu, carried a fair freight, charging $6 per ton—same as packet rates—for passengers, $75 and $40 for cabin and steerage, being $7-50 and $10 over packet rates. Last year there were six regular packets to Honolulu, now the two lines have been reduced to one vessel each—the Comet and D O Murray There are, however, quite a number of transient vessels plying between the ports, carrying lumber, etc.

At auction to-day, Jones & Bendixen sold Yellow Refined Sugars at a considerable decline from rates obtained by them a fortnight since Details of the sale will be found under the appropriate head The bidding at the sale lacked spirit, dealers not anxious to buy.

We note round sales of Molasses here and to arrive, at current rates. The market for this article has been dull for some time past.

MRS. STOWE, THE SPIRITUALIST.—The Olympia Tribune of the 19th, says Mrs. C. M Stowe, the spiritual lecturess, is delivering a course of lectures at Olympia.

NOT YET HEARD FROM.—The Albany Journal of Monday, the 21st, says that not a trace has yet been discovered as to the fate of Col. J. H. Noyce.

GONE.—The little Rainier left yesterday afternoon for the Cowlitz river, with some freight for Rainier and other points on the Columbia.

MCCORMICK, as usual, is on hand with Eastern newspapers and pictorials and we are under obligations for a bundle of them.

TO SAIL.—The steamship Fideliter, Erskine, Commander, will sail for Victoria on Friday the 25th inst. at 5 o clock P M.

NEWSPAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr. Chas. Barrett for late newspapers and pictorials, received by the steamer Oriflamme

On account of the steamer Oriflamme getting aground Barman Bros are unable to open out their new stock of Clothing until to-morrow.

GREAT SALE OF FURS.—The grand sale of furs, at auction, by Mr A. B. Richardson, [illegible] place to day at 10 o'clock The goods arrived by the [illegible] Oliv ~~ogua~~ Tuesday night. They are imported [illegible] from New York, and constitute the finest sets ever offered in this city.

The Proprietor of the LAFAYETTE RESTAURANT takes pleasure in informing his friends and the public in general, that from this date, and during the oyster season, he will keep his establishment open at night until 2 o'clock A M, and will serve Oysters and Suppers in every style.

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or
PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion Acting as a gentle and painless aprient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

Jeff Davis—His Last War Council.

In a newspaper called the Southern Home Journal, E A Pollard describes the last council of war held by Jefferson Davis. This conference was held in South Carolina, while Davis was in retreat and only a few days after the issue of his proclamation of April 5th in which he urged the South to an unending conflict This proclamation was issued before the surrender of Lee's army, "an event," says Pollard, "which appeared to determine the last hopes of the Southern people, to convince them that further prosecution of the war was useless, and even criminal in a fruitless consumption of human life." Pollard adds:

"Not so with Davis He was remarkable for a sanguine temperament; he had that disposition at once imperious and weak, which, demanding that all things must be as it wishes, believes them so; and what the world thought the swollen boasts of a desperate and failing leader were really the sincere illusions of a proud man who never indeed fully realized the extremity of his cause until 'the iron entered his soul' in the casemates of Fortress Monroe In his strangely deliberate and leisurely retreat through the Carolinas he had not appeared for a moment to realize that he was a fugitive, and he looked with complacency upon the disordered fragments of the army that he had gathered on the line of his flight, and that pursued it with a vague and uncertain design An officer who was constantly in his company in what might be thought the days of anguish and despair to the fallen chief, testifies 'Davis was apparently untouched by any of the demoralization which prevailed—he was affable, dignified and the very personification of high and undaunted courage' He yet persisted that the cause was not lost, although Lee had surrendered although Johnson had furled his banners without battle, and although all that was visible of the great armies that had stood from Richmond to Augusta, on the dominant lines of the war, were less than one thousand soldiers, fragments of brigades that assembled around him at Abbeville, South Carolina, when he paused there for a final council with his Generals.

"In the little town of Abbeville, Davis summoned his officers to council, he was determined to try their resolution and anxious to ascertain the spirit of their men. The only full generals who yet attended him were Bragg, his 'military adviser,' and Breckinridge, lately Secretary of War There were five brigade commanders present at the conference To this small but important audience Davis addressed himself with all the powers of his wonderful and subtle intellect. The [illegible] look was yet in his worn face; the [illegible] anchored with neuralgic pain, with its deep [illegible] light shone steadily and defiant, the [illegible] was illuminated by the active mind, [illegible] with animated discourse. He spoke in [illegible] very tones of his eloquence. He de[illegible] the country was only suffering from [illegible] and an exaggerated alarm; its [illegible] would soon be erect again; the present [illegible] was that of panic, and patriotism would [illegible] when it heard the commanding [illegible] tones of authority He insisted [illegible] was not hopeless The armies could [illegible], and there would be new calls for [illegible] and new incentives to the country's [illegible] said that even the few hundred men [illegible] around him were enough to pro[illegible] war until the panic had [illegible] away, and [illegible] be anxious for thousands more [illegible] to accept his views and [illegible] stand to the good cause, whose [illegible] maintained and whose last [illegible] on their bayonets.

[illegible] were silent At length, they [illegible] brigade commander stat[illegible] temper of his men, and [illegible] situation It was a plain, [illegible] the war could not succeed, [illegible] they could not ask [illegible] against a fate that was inevitable [illegible] restoration to their [illegible] would insist that [illegible] securing the escape of [illegible] accomplishment of this object [illegible] put off submission to [illegible]

[illegible] the unhappy chief, in [illegible] of no plan which [illegible] Then speaking slowly [illegible] fearful change [illegible] said 'All hope is [illegible] the day when all the friends [illegible] are prepared to consent to her degra[illegible] faltered and sat down in silence [illegible] the room respecting him [illegible]

[illegible] even a gesture of courte[illegible] acknowledgment of the company [illegible] to leave the room, and [illegible] he had lost his erect carriage and [illegible] A weight of years appeared [illegible] fallen on the stricken sufferer [illegible] were uneasy in the pale [illegible] uncertain and tottering was [illegible] Breckinridge moved to his side, and [illegible] arm, supported him from the room [illegible] word was spoken"

[illegible] Ruled Out—The editor of the [illegible] out Providence. [illegible]

It is questionable whether we shall ever hear anything about [illegible] Grant which is not immediately [illegible] A week ago we had it apparently [illegible] a story could be said, that if [illegible] Providence and the desire of [illegible] he should be President, he would [illegible] not disappoint the other It [illegible] he contradicts the statement [illegible] expressed a willingness to [illegible] if nominated Notwithstanding [illegible] we adhere to our first [illegible] the office is thrust upon him, no matter [illegible] be fully [illegible] accept [illegible] too much [illegible] to do [illegible] country calls The Providence part of the [illegible] possibly be very well left [illegible] that there is no [illegible] be ascertained. If Providence [illegible] should be President, it would be foolish to attempt to make capital out of [illegible] If [illegible] has willed that General Grant [illegible] President of these United States and [illegible] General himself, but politicians everywhere [illegible] as well as [illegible] The only thing [illegible] political point of view, which it is necessary to [illegible] in this matter, is this If General Grant does accept this nomination which [illegible] to an election, to the Presidency he makes a sacrifice, for the good of the country for the position which he now occupies is just as honorable as well paid, and not half so [illegible] or annoying

An Awkward Situation—The Oakland News [illegible] a scene said to have been witnessed by a gentleman riding over the Twelfth-street bridge, between that city and San Antonio, on Sunday, September 29th, as follows

A young man and still more youthful female were [illegible] over the railing and apparently in animated conversation. From what followed, it was [illegible] evident that the young lady had placed her affections upon the youth who wouldn't [illegible] the kind of turkey in return that she desired

"Say honey I do, O, do say that you love me [illegible] do a rash act," said the infatuated damsel Henry didn't do it, for in a moment out jumped the lady in blue, tomatoes [illegible] up her knees She tried to make her way to the [illegible] water, but to save her neck she couldn't do [illegible] sooner did she try to raise one leg, than [illegible] went the other still further "Henry, (the [illegible]) looked on perfectly unconcerned, she kept sinking in the mud until she was submerged as far as her crinoline would allow, when she concluded there might possibly be an easier way of shuffling off this mortal coil. She called loudly on her stone hearted swain to come to the rescue, which he gallantly did, to the dire detriment of his $10 calfskins and sky-blue pants When the lady got ashore it took half an hour to scrape the mud from her stockings." The Newsadds "The parties were strangers and had the verdant look of San Francisco depicted in their countenances"

The United States Language—At Mesilla the public records and legal proceedings were in Spanish A Kentuckian was brought before the Alcalde or magistrate for assault and battery The native Judge, with shaggy beard, uncombed hair and dirty face, appeared on the bench in a soiled calico shirt and buckskin sandals He knew no English Sternly motioning the Kentuckian to rise, he ordered the Sheriff to ask the prisoner whether he spoke Spanish

"Nary Spanish"

"Then," said the Alcalde, "he must hire an interpreter"

The delinquent, shifting his tobacco quid to the other cheek, replied:

"Ask him whether this Court is sitting in Mexico or the United States?"

"In the United States!" responded the angry official.

"Then tell him that I understand the United States language, and if he don't I'll see him d—d before I'll hire an interpreter for him."—Richardson's Beyond the Mississippi

A Quaker gentleman, riding in a carriage with a fashionable lady decked with a profusion of jewelry, heard her complain of cold Shivering in her lace bonnet and shawl as light as cobweb, she exclaimed

"What shall I do to get warm?"

"I really don't know," replied the Quaker solemnly, "unless thee should put on another breast pin!"

Chief Justice Chase on Woman's Suffrage.—In a recent conversation with Lucy Stone, Chase said

He free to say from me that I think there will be no end to the good that will come by woman's suffrage, on the elected, on elections, on Government and on woman herself I have said this in public and in private for many years I am glad that an effort is making in Kansas to accomplish it, and I shall rejoice when the elective franchise shall be as free to women as it is now to men I think, too, that this time will be at no distant day

Ye Pimpled, Blotched and Ulcerated Victims of scrofulous diseases who drag your unclean persons into the company of better men, take AYER'S SARSAPARILLA and purge out the foul corruption from your blood Restore your health, and you will not only enjoy life better, but make your company more tolerable to those who must keep it

Mothers who have Delicate Children, who are subject to Croup.—When your child goes to bed wheezing and coughing, you know not before morning Croup may set in, and before you can get a Physician your child may be beyond the reach of help ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM should always be kept in your house, and be given immediately when the first symptoms appear, which will remove the mucus collected in the throat and save the life of your dear child —Sold by dealers in family medicines generally.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

It is a real pleasure to us to speak favorably of this article, known almost universally to be a good and safe remedy for burns and other pains of the body, It is valuable not only for colds in the winter, but for various summer complaints and should be in every family. The [illegible] By which demands it may come unawares —Christian Advocate

PAIN KILLER, taken internally, should be adulterated with milk or water, and sweetened with sugar, if desired or made into a syrup with molasses For a Cough and Bronchitis, a few drops on sugar, eaten, will be more effective than anything else For Sore Throat, gargle the throat with a mixture of Pain Killer and water and the relief is immediate and cure positive.

HENLEY'S
ROYAL BALSAM.

AS A
FAMILY MEDICINE
IT IS
WELL AND FAVORABLY KNOWN,
RELIEVING THOUSANDS
FROM
COUGHS, COLDS,
Bronchitis,
ASTHMA, CROUP, HOARSENESS,
WHOOPING COUGH,
Influenza,
[illegible] AND [illegible]
ALL DISEASES
OF THE
Chest and Lungs.

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

HAS NOW BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR A length of time, and wherever used is highly recommended, never failing in a single instance to give permanent relief when timely made; and we have never known a single case of dissatisfaction, but, on the contrary, all are delighted with it and speak in the highest terms of its magical effects. The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM, in curing the diseases for which it is recommended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines, and no family can be without it after once trying it

Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon

MIRACULOUS CURE.

Dr. Henley—Dear Sir, I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my wife She had been affected with a severe cough for several weeks, which had assumed a dangerous feature for which many physicians have been trying without any material benefit and all the remedies failed to give her any relief. Without relief was got I feared for the worst, in her present condition The cough appeared to be worse at night, she could get no rest—when Mr. Russell, of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam; all other remedies having failed, I concluded to try it, and I purchased two bottles Strange to say, by the time I gave her three spoonfuls of the Balsam she got relief, and slept, a thing she had not done for three nights previous By the time she had taken one bottle the cough was checked Its effect was truly miraculous [illegible] tion in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted, and it appears astonishing to me that medicine of such great merit, and I might say magical effect, is not more in use. My candid opinion is, if persons use it once, they never be without it in the house
Vancouver, March 1, 1867. H COCHRAN.

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill July 15, 1867

Dear Dr. Henley—It is with sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis, and have spent a fortune to get cured, trying all the physicians and remedies I could get to no purpose, Through the influence of my neighbors (f r you have a great name with them here,) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam, and finding that it relieved me considerable I sent for a half dozen more And now after one month using it I am perfectly cured I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity that through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been Yours truly,
WILLIAM DOTY.

From Sophia M. Holman.

Dear Dr Henley—It is my duty to inform you and the public, what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children Two of them had a very bad cough and cold, I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam, and gave them some of the medicine and some in the morning and that was all that was needed to cure them I was astonished at not hearing them cough again, but so it was I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house, in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy, as it acts like magic on children What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease, had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now, I shall always recommend it to all my friends for I consider it a blessing and Godsend to mankind
Yours truly, SOPHIA M HOLMAN

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business, and now have fifteen different kinds of Expectorants for sale, But Dr Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all In fact, we sell six bottles of Royal [illegible] to one of any other kind—and really it is a sin of no use to keep any other During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does, as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases, when nothing else would, remove the dreadful cough they had I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma. We acknowledge it is a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction
E. BELL & PARKER,
Druggists Oregon City

From W. F. Barber.

Dr. Henley—Dear Sir I had the Asthma for the last four years, so bad that it came near choking me I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good, until I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam, which on several afflicted with the same disease has performed wonders I am using it now for a week and strange to say I have not experienced anything since and I really believe that I am perfectly cured, anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with the same disease,
I am Yours truly,
W F BARBER

From J. H. Morril.

Dear Dr Henley—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicines and quack nostrums now a days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine I was afflicted with what is called Bronchitis for the last thirty years I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time, I tried some of the best physicians in the Atlantic States and on this coast, all to no purpose, I could get no relief, and I really thought there was no relief for me in the world I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam and it had a most remarkable effect on me and before I had used up four bottles, the cough left me and I can talk as loud as anybody; my wife and neighbors don't know what to make of it My opinion is that if they knew the value of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it, I think there is not a better medicine in existence for Bronchitis or cough than the Royal Balsam, and I conscientiously recommend to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial
I remain yours truly,
J. H. MORRIL.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are enduring out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage on the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death close the scene Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of those horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequences of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, [illegible] breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

TO THE LADIES,

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc , will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co

Address DR J F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco Post Office Box 252.

Consultations FREE.

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER!

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARrive when a new direction is imparted to its course These epochs proceed from discovery of new facts shedding a light which changes the whole aspect of the science. The present is an epoch of this kind, and this Great Remedy, now offered to the public, in connection with the theory on which it is based, is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of

by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood. The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts; it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from the days of Æsculapius down to the present time, in the arcana of Medical Science, which can vie with or excel the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier. Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, it has baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING'S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be more safely and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY'S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER Thousands have been swept into their graves, who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself During the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and not been found wanting

Dr HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world and eradicate the disease entirely from the system or no charge made —provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured

FOR REFERENCE:

I would refer you to L L Peck, of Portland Oregon, and numbers of others as to what a miraculous effect it had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years
